Officials should put their sworn duty over the Red Wings

How many elected officials understand their oath of office. They are sworn in to represent the citizens of their community - not to cut short meetings to get home in time to watch the Stanley Cup Playoffs.

While I am second to no one in my support of the Red Wings, I did not elect [name deleted] so he can watch hockey on television.

Rouge refuse should have been recycled instead of trashed

I read the article about the Rouge Rescue in last week's Canton Eagle, and was shocked to read all of the things that people dumped in the river: tires, mufflers, shopping carts, and an air conditioner.

It doesn't make sense for people to take so much trouble to destroy a natural resource. There are easier ways to dispose of an air conditioner than to haul it in a truck to the Rouge River.

All that energy would be better spent taking it to a recycling center.

Dishonest school board elections have a nasty downside

An outright lie may have swung enough votes away from Sheila Friedrich to allow Darwin Watts to narrowly beat her in the [Plymouth-Canton] school board election.

Who knows how many people wrongly believed that she hadn't graduated from college. How many votes did it cost her?

I wish people would see the downside to elections run on who can lie best. As a result, the school board has at least one more confirmed liar on it.

The district has suffered enough from members who don't consider and act on the merits of the serious issues facing the district: issues such as how to build new schools, how to balance its budget. Honesty is needed to deal with these issues.

Siders is leaving Romulus schools

Romulus Director of Special Education Claude Siders will be leaving the Romulus area soon to assume the role of superintendent of the Moran Township School District.

Upon thoughts of leaving an area he has grown greatly accustomed to in the last 14 years, Siders had high praise for his staff. "I've always felt that I have been served by the best Special Education staff in the state of Michigan," Siders said.

He also said he would greatly miss the relationships he has developed over this time with his students and their parents.

The Romulus School Board trustees will honor Siders at their June 22 meeting with a resolution that will cite Siders for exhibiting "and outstanding professional attitude by showing a willingness to go 'the extra mile.'"

The resolution also will honor him for the many successful district wide programs he has initiated, written and planned and for being actively involved in community programs.

Students remember Cymonne

By AL POST
MCN Staff Writer

"Cymonne helped me remember" how short life is and how important it is too "have fun," a fellow classmate Gabrielle Flaishans told a memorial gathering last week.

Cymonne Pyles, aged 10, died April 28 after a year and a half battle from the effects of a brain tumor.

Fourth grade classmates of Cymonne gathered to take part in the half hour memorial service at Halecreek Elementary School directed by their teachers, Fran Elser and Sharon Silveri.

The extremely focused students - seated on the edge of the school's stage - each offered memories of Cymonne and how her brief life touched them.

In addition to the aforementioned statement, Kelsi Milam said she "admired Cymonne for the way she stood up for people. She always had something nice to say" always had a great sense of humor. "She was a good friend and I will never forget her."

Another student Amber Gondek outlined her thoughts by saying "I liked Cymonne because she was a good friend," who "helped me when I was

McPhail would replace Katz as airport chief

By AL POST
MCN Staff Writer

Wayne County Executive candidate Sharon McPhail told a Greater Romulus Chamber of Commerce gathering on Tuesday that if elected this August she would replace Metro Airport Director David Katz with someone more qualified.

Katz was named earlier this year as airport director by County Executive Ed McNamara.

McPhail said usually an airport director has five years work in at a particular airport before being named director. She declared Metro Airport - which she several times called the worst in the nation - is in dire need of a well qualified director.

She also complained that the airport is run by Northwest Airlines and not by Wayne County. Thus McPhail said replacing Katz would be one of her first official actions after the November election if she wins.

In a packet she presented to the various business and professional persons at the luncheon, McPhail also listed her 14 point program connected with the airport. A future story will list those points.

McPhail, a private attorney who earlier ran against Dennis Archer for the office of Detroit Mayor, complained that Wayne County taxes are much higher than either Oakland or Macomb Counties and thus continues to lose in population statistics.

Since most people no longer have trust in their area governments, McPhail said, she would institute a "participatory democracy" in which area citizens, such as those in Romulus would have a much greater voice in county government.

McPhail when asked her view on possible Detroit casinos, said she has always been opposed to such inner city casinos and remains against them today.

She admitted that she has signed a petition that is asking that Michigan voters be given another chance to vote on the local casino issue.

The coalition seeking to place the casino issue back on the Michigan ballot has an extended deadline and plans to turn in their signatures tomorrow in Lansing.

McNamara spoke out in support of the casino effort as a job creator when he appeared before the Romulus Chamber months ago.

Runkel's death saddens Romulus

Last week's death of former Michigan school superintendent Phil Runkel has hit the Romulus School District office extremely hard.

Mr. Runkel, who was known best for his successful campaign for Proposal A earlier this decade, died last Wednesday in Rochester, Minn. following complications from his battle with lung surgery.

Romulus Superintendent Dr. William Bedell called Runkel "without question the best state superintendent Michigan ever had."

Bedell continued "he was a rare leader...who saw his role as a helper for local school districts."

When Runkel would visit Romulus in the midst of various millage efforts, Bedell said, he would go door to door himself to convince Romulus residents that the millage was in their best interest.

"Phil also would do a great job energizing school principals into participating in the millage campaigns," Bedell said.

Assistant Superintendent Joel Carr also praised Runkel as a "close friend of public education."

Carr, who also became a personal friend of Runkel, said "Phil was a definite believer that every child can be successful. He broke the mold in that belief, working harder at it than any person I know."

Carr, who reportedly became excessively misty eyed when informed of Runkel's death last week, said "the state has suffered a great loss...and in particular those students who have not yet been touched by his magical compassion."

Runkel was superintendent of public instruction from 1980 to 1987. In 1993 he successfully campaigned for Proposal A that made the state sales tax rather than property tax the primary source of school funding.

Earlier he headed the Grand Rapids School District, the second largest district in the state.

Mr. Runkel was a superb facilitator, who could bring groups together although he himself would not do the talking at the meetings, said Ken MacGregor of the Michigan Education Association.

Runkel's funeral was conducted on Monday at St. John's Student Parish in East Lansing.

Basham applauds 'deepwell decision'

State Rep. Raymond Basham (D-Taylor) today applauded the decision by Richard LaOasse, Chief Administrative Law Judge, to uphold the Michigan Department of Environmental Quality's (DEQ) decision to deny two hazardous waste disposal permits to Environmental Disposal Systems Inc. (EDS) for the Citrin drive site.

"The DEQ made the best possible decision for Romulus residents and our environment when the permits were originally denied," Basham said. "In response to EDS's appeal of the permit decision, the Administrative Law Judge recognized the DEQ's authority to deny well permit applications on the basis of need and affirmed the Department's denial. As a result, the Judge's decision will stand as the final decision regarding EDS's permits for the Citrin Drive site."

The Chief Administrative Law Judge upheld the permit denials because EDS already owns a "usable" disposal well at a Wahrman Road site, four miles from the site of the two proposed wells. EDS built this hazardous waste disposal well in Romulus in 1993, however, as a result of a court injunction it has never been operational. The City of Romulus continues to fight this waste well because the area is not zoned for that use. EDS applied for the new permits at the Citrin Drive site in 1996.

"We need to explore other ways to reduce hazardous waste, rather than using these wells which put our ground water and the health of residents at risk," Basham said.

'Godspell' offering this weekend at Memorial Auditorium

By AL POST
MCN Staff Writer

Senior citizens are being offered discount tickets costing $5 to attend this weekend's performances of Godspell at the Stockmeyer Auditorium at Wayne Memorial High School.

The performances at 7:30 p.m. Friday and Saturday are being offered by members of St. Mary's Catholic Church of Wayne. The musical is based on the gospel of St. Matthew.

Performances (and similar senior citizen discounts) are available for next week's shows on June 26 and 27.

Tickets may be obtained at the church or at the Wayne

Public Library. Call 734-721-8745 for more information.

Prize winning gardener Walter Warren is opening up his Westland garden for public tours from 1 to 5 p.m. June 20 and 21.

Warren's garden has over 80 varieties of hostas, thousands of daylilies and many old roses.

The garden is located at at 31913 Saginaw ct., where is three blocks west of the intersection of Merriman and Dorsey roads in Westland.

Ironically Warren was recently arrested by the city of Westland when his yard was declared to be in violation of the city blight ordinance.

He will stand trial in the 18th District Court later this year.

The sixth annual Salute to America concert and fireworks will take place July 2, 3 and 4 at Henry Ford Museum and Greenfield Village.

The doors for the performances will be opened at 7 p.m. with a prelude concert at 7:30 p.m. by the U.S. Army Field Band and Soldiers Chorus.

The Detroit Symphony Orchestra will take the stage at 8:30 p.m. A fireworks will follow each evening's concert.

Beasleys to mark 60th anniversary

Marion and George Beasley

George and Marion Beasley of Wayne will be celebrating their 60th wedding anniversary with a dinner this month.

The two met and fell in love at the Walled Lake Casino dancing to the big bands. They married on June 22, 1938 in an outdoor garden wedding at the bride's parents home in Wixom.

Marion carried a bridal bouquet of fresh flowers picked from her mother's garden that day.

The Beasleys have lived in Wayne for 51 years. Beasley served as manager for 12 years at the C.F. Smith grocery store in Wayne, which stood where the Standard Federal Bank now is located.

He also retired from Garwood Industries of Wayne. Mrs. Beasley is a retired secretary from the Wayne-Westland schools.

They have been members of the First Congregational Church of Wayne since they moved to the community and will help the church celebrate its 150th anniversary this year.

The Beasley's are the parents of two sons, Kenneth (Kathy) of Manchester and Norm (Linda) of Wayne. They have four grandchildren and one great-granddaughter.

HAP senior plus pact in effect

HAP Senior Plus members in Western Wayne County can now be serviced by Annapolis Hospital in Wayne and Heritage Hospital in Taylor, the Oakwood Healthcare System revealed last week.

The latest agreement that went into effect May 1 gives HAP Senior Members more healthcare choices and it gives the staff at Annapolis Center a chance to shine with quality and compassionate care for more patients, Tom Kochis, site leader at the Annapolis Center, said.

To make an appointment with an Oakwood physician, call the Oakwood Health Line at 1-800-543-WELL.

Large outlet mall project moves major step closer at Romulus Metro World

By AL POST
MCN Staff Writer

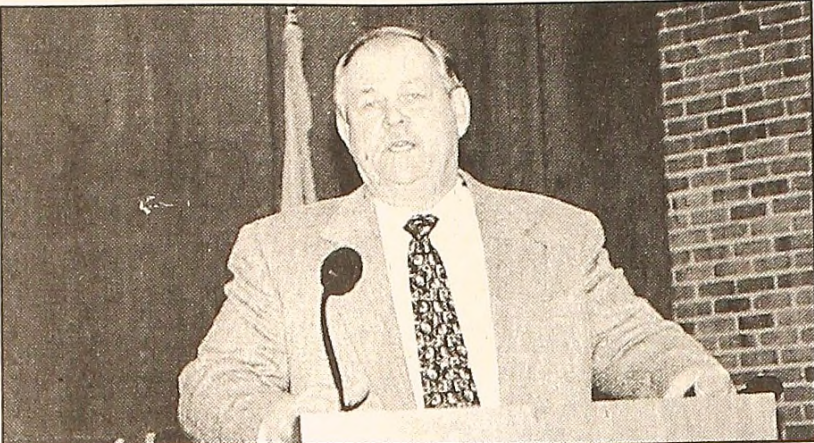

The long awaited creation of a major Metro World Centre project in Romulus is about to become reality, following the opening of the new $17.4 million Vining Road interchange.

The planned project is a new 1.1 million square foot retail-entertainment complex to be built by the Tanger Factory Outlet Centers Inc. of Greensboro, N.C.

Mayor William Oakley expressed great optimism Tuesday after seeing initial Tanger Co. plans for the outlet mall. Those plans now face a series of workshops and hearings in the next few months in Romulus so that a potential 1999 opening of the first phase of the outlet mall can take place.

The Tanger project will be developed on a 140 acre tract and will create a mix of up-scale branded manufacturers and retailers, a multiplex cinema area, format bookstore, restaurants, a food court and hotels to create a new format of regional shopping and entertainment.

The $125 million Tanger re-

tail project is expected to create up to 1,800 jobs, attract 10 million shoppers of which four million are expected to be visitors to the Wayne County area.

It is hoped the complex will generate over $220 million in retail sales, add $13 million in new state tax revenue and $4 million to Romulus real estate taxes.

Metro World Centre is owned by Detroit native and West Palm Beach developer E. Llywd Eccelstone and is managed by his partner, The Farman Group.

Metro World Centre is now working with planning consultants in Romulus to create a master plan for the balance of the mall-entertainment complex. The Farman group estimates that the total value of the projects will be in excess of $500 million.

The project contains the vision of the Romulus city officials and the Romulus Tax Increment Finance Authority and is expected to finally put Romulus on the commercial map of Wayne County.

Bookstore sponsors writing contest

The Island Bookstore in conjunction with Mackinaw Jane's Publishing Company is conducting a writers' competition in Michigan. This contest will give unknown and novice writers the opportunity to be published for the first time. No experience is necessary and the selections need not be about Michigan.

"This writing contest is possibly the most exciting program ever launched by a Michigan bookstore as it promises to make some authors' dreams come true and launch some wonderful writing careers," says Mary Jane Barnwell, owner of the Island Bookstore located in Mackinaw City.

Between April 1 and August 1, writers are invited to prepare a work of almost any kind and submit it to: Mackinaw Jane's Publishing Company, Voices of Michigan, Box 475, Mackinac Island, Michigan 49757. The work can be fiction, non-fiction, personal essay or poetry. Details appear in the contest rules.

At midnight August 1, 1998 the contest will be closed and all submissions forwarded to a panel of judges. All entries will be notified of the judges' decisions. The best pieces will be chosen, edited and bound into a book.

When the books are printed and ready for sale, Mackinaw Jane's Publishing Company, along with The Island Bookstore, will host a reception in June, 1999 on Mackinac Island. This function will honor the authors and their invited guests, promote the book and serve as a book signing. Publicity will be provided for the author and for the book in the authors' hometown(s). Books will be available at the reception, at The Island Bookstore in Mackinaw City and on Mackinac Island and at selected bookstores and gift shops throughout Michigan.

Mackinaw Jane's Publishing Company plans to make this writers' competition an annual event and the Voices of Michigan anthology an annual publication.

For entry forms and further information call (616) 347-5263 or (616) 436-BOOK (after May 1). Fax us at (616) 348-5265 or E-mail us at mac-janes@Juno.com.

John Glenn grad joins TV news

By AL POST
MCN Staff Writer

David Bondy, who recently graduated from Eastern Michigan University, has joined the news staff of CBS affiliate Channel 44 in Evansville, Ind.

Bondy, son of Bonnie and Jim Bondy of Wayne, was previously on two Wayne Cablevision programs prior to his John Glenn High graduation in 1993.

Bondy also played baseball while attending St. Mary's Catholic School in Wayne and later for the city of Wayne itself.

While in high school, Bondy also was editor-in-chief of the school newspaper and was a winner in a Voice of America public speaking contest.

Bondy and his family are members of St. Mary's Catholic Church of Wayne.

He also had an internship with CNN while in college as well as with Channel 50 in Southfield and Channel 13 in Toledo, Ohio.

Bondy also worked previously as a sports correspondent for the Detroit Free Press. He also compiled sports information for his coaches over the phone and wrote summaries of high school sports. Bondy also worked as a bat boy and club house attendant for the Detroit Tigers.

He also has begun to collect sports memorabilia including a bat from former Tiger star Cecil Fielder and a ball signed by Hall of Famer Stan Musial.

He also has free lanced material for the Sports Collectors' Digest.

His family also includes: three brothers, Jim, Dan and Joe; a sister, Nancy; and his late sister, Joan Marie.

Kesner attending Girls State Week

By AL POST
MCN Staff Writer

Mamie Elisabeth Kesner, a Romulus High School junior with a strong love of music, is now attending the 58th Annual American Legion Auxiliary Girls State Program at Michigan State University in East Lansing.

Kesner is one of 546 girls representing the best of Michigan youth, Romulus High School Counselor John Domas said this week.

Kesner is the daughter of School Board Trustee Howard Kesner and his wife, Alice. She is being sponsored by the Romulus Kiwanis Club.

The honor student currently has a 4.045 grade point average and is planning a college career in the music field.

Mamie Kesner

The 1998 Girls State Program is designed as a practical experience in the problems of self government as they relate to the State of Michigan. The purpose of the program is to emphasize the importance of government in modern life; to stimulate a deep and lasting interest in government and to enlarge the students' understanding of the governmental process.

Kesner's selection was based on her character, interests and potential abilities, Domas revealed. Also considered are teacher recommendations and Kesner's academic record.

Two girls attending this week's Girls State program will be selected to later travel to Girls Nation in Washington D.C.

Domas also extended thanks to the following for helping Kesner go to Girls State: Mae Jackson and William Knight, school counselors; David Ferdon, Romulus Kiwanis Club; Kathy Hurst, Student Government advisor; Kathy Abdo, class advisor; Henry James, Ron Bayes, Lance Knudson and Bill Barnes, teachers; Daniel Hurst, principal; Melvin Kimbrough and Douglas Hoffman, assistant principals; and Joyce Evans, Guidance Office secretary.

Harvey Moore of Belleville won $150,000 in the Michigan Lottery's Big Game by matching the first five numbers in the drawing.

Moore, 70, plans to buy a new convertible, build a pole barn for his motor home and save the rest.

After the May 1 drawing, Moore said he saw his numbers in the newspaper and called his wife, but I still wasn't sure I had the five numbers right.

"They then called the Lottery office to confirm the numbers and found it was real," Moore said.

He chose numbers (2-27-29-35-46) that had significance in his life. The Big Ball number was 16.

Moore said he purchased his ticket at Andrews Drugs in Belleville.

Marlon Elijah Legion was born the 2nd child of proud parents Cassandra and Michael of Romulus. Little Marlon was born on May 11, 1998 at 3:58 a.m. at Oakwood Hospital Annapolis Center-Wayne. He weighed in at 6 pounds, 4 ounces. His new brother is Michael Laron and sister is Amber Lynn. And his grandparents are Carol Maxwell of Inkster and Charlesella Legion of Westland.

Van Buren Reports

A shoplifter was arrested at Meijer's on June 5 at 12:29pm.

A caller from a cell phone reported a reckless driver on Belleville Road on June 5.

Police went to the area and could not locate the suspect.

Police were called to remove a disorderly person from a location on Westlake.

Officers patrolling the area of the 10900 block of Belleville Road on June 5 pulled over what they believed to be a drunk driver.

After testing, the driver proved to be sober.

A 911 call on June 6 revealed a medical emergency. The call was transferred to the fire department and Huron Valley Ambulance.

The victim was transported to Beyer Hospital.

A domestic assault and battery was called to the attention of officers from the 2000 block of Rawsonville Road.

The suspect fled the scene to avoid arrest before police arrived.

Two more domestic problems were reported immediately following the above on June 6.

The next one was from a home on Beckley and then from a home in Lake Villa.

Two loud music complaints were made within 50 minutes of each other from Parkwood Manor.

The first call was from the 9300 block at 3:03am. The second was at 3:55am from building 2.

An assault was reported at Meijer's on June 6 at 2:03pm.

Also on June 6 at Meijer's, an arrest was made for retail fraud at 1:04pm.

A retail fraud charge was called into police from a business in the 9701 block of Belleville Road.

A domestic assault in the 14200 block of Martinsville Road resulted in an arrest on June 6.

A neighbor dispute from the 48800 block of Denton Road was called in to police at 8:52pm.

The dispute quickly turned into an assault at 9pm.

Police went to the scene and reports were made.

An injury accident was reported from Ecorse and Belleville Roads at 10pm on June 6.

A disorderly person was brought to the attention of officers at 2:09am from the 11600 block of Haggerty Road.

The person was arrested and lodged at the station on June 7.

A fight at the Diamond Back on June 7 at 2:19pm resulted in 2 arrests.

Someone called police to report a prowler in the 44300 block of E. Huron River Drive in the early morning hours of June 7.

Police went the area and searched. No suspect was found.

A retail fraud report was made at Farmer Jack on June 7.

drag racers were pushed to Washtenaw County.

Someone drove off without paying for their gas at the Shell Station on June 7.

A gang fight was reported at Meijers on June 8 at 1:12am.

A shooting (no victims) was reported at Rawsonville and Grove Roads on June 8 at 1:45am.

A suspicious vehicle reported to police from the Tin Lizzie resulted in an arrest.

Evidently the spouse of someone on the South Service Drive was not wanted at home.

Police were called for a husband who gained entry into a home and the man was arrested.

KMart's called police to report retail fraud on June 9 at 1:30pm.

An arrest was made due to the report.

Phone lines were knocked down by a semi traveling on Hannan at Huron River Drive on June 9.

The semi could not be located when officers arrived.

An annoying barking, howling dog caused someone to call the police in the Haggerty Sub on May 25 at 8:57am.

The owner was advised of the consequences.

A child was reported missing from a caller on Lauren Court.

The juvenile was located in Sumpter Township.

Police pulled over a vehicle at Haggerty and Huron River Drive for possible narcotics activity.

The vehicle was inspected and found clear.

Romulus Police held a man at their station until Van Buren could pick him up.

The man was held on a warrant from Van Buren.

A 911 hang up investigation proved to be a verbal domestic dispute from Bellridge Apartments.

A report was also taken from a home in the Park Estates on June 9 for a physical domestic problem.

Van Buren Police were called to assist court officers with an eviction at Parkwood Manor as trouble was feared.

The eviction took place without incident.

A juvenile was held at Meijers on a charge of retail fraud on June 9.

Officers turned the kid over to the parents for punishment.

A mother and daughter living in a home on Woodbury got into a physical fight.

The daughter was removed from the home. It is unknown right now if the daughter is a minor.

A hit and run accident was reported at Belleville and Tyler Roads on June 10 at 5:42am.

Police made a traffic stop near the 10700 block of Belleville Road on June 10 in the evening hours for a possible drunk driver.

Turned out to be right and the person was arrested.

Three arrests were made by Van Buren Police on June 11.

The first was at 7:10am when police were called for a domestic problem in the 48000 block of Harbour Club.

The person at the residence was already wanted on a warrant.

The next arrest was from a caller in Harbour Club who stated there was a suspicious person in a vehicle in the parking lot.

It is unknown to us as to why this person was arrested.

The last arrest was for a domestic assault in the 5900 block of Winchester.

A stolen vehicle was recovered in the 820 block of Haggerty and turned over to its rightful owner on June 11.

Road construction woes make driving adventurous

I should be writing something great and wonderful about the Red Wings, hockey team and not shoes, of course. Back-to-back Stanley Cups is a phenomenal accomplishment and Stevie Y, Ozzie, Drapes and the group led by a coaching genius, Scotty Bowman deserve all the praise heaped upon them, if not more. But what more can be said that the major media hasn't already expounded upon day in and day out. This team is simply head over heels better than any other hockey team in the National Hockey League.

Still, they have a long way to go to emulate the accomplishments of the Windy City Bulls. Like'em or hate'em the Jordan-Pippen-Rodman connection has won six NBA championships in the 1990's. The latest, secured last Sunday, was accomplished by the sheer will and determination of the greatest athlete to adorn any uniform this century, Sir Michael Jordan.

Jordan's latest heroics were played out on the basketball court. He made two clutch shots and a steal in the last minute of the game to bring the Bulls from behind to victory. But on the court of life, Jordan is equally as determined, and I might add, humble. Unlike many of our role models, Jordan says the right things and rarely, despite being probably the most well-known person in the world, finds his name in the supermarket tabloids.

Democratic candidate for governor Jeff Feiger, claims Governor Engler has let our roads into a desperate state of disrepair and current efforts at road repair are too little and too late. Engler, on the other hand, claims he has amassed more money than any other administration to repair and build roads. The truth probably lies somewhere between the two claims, but if you drive Western Wayne roads, you would swear our road builders have hit the lottery.

If there is a way to get out of Wayne, I haven't found it. My usual route - north on I-275 - has been a nightmare, particularly on a Saturday. Last Monday they even had the on ramp at Michigan blocked off so you couldn't even get on the highway. Tuesday morning the exit ramp to Ford Road was blocked and a flashing sign told drivers to "seek alternate routes." Construction vehicles and manpower are everywhere, and unfortunately you never know where the back-up begins and ends.

The question usually becomes, do you dare I-275, knowing that at some point you will sit at a standstill for 30 minutes or do you take a side road. The choice would usually be a side road, accept construction is taking place on most of the north-south side roads as well. Newburgh construction has been ongoing for over a year. Haggerty Road is tore up in several locations. Hannan Road is closed at Palmer. Canton Center is going to undergo major reconstruction as workers begin to add lanes. Again, I ask how is one suppose to travel north and south through this area we call Western Wayne?

The same could be said about east and west. Michigan Avenue is a one lane demolition track from I-275 to Ypsilanti. M-14, a few miles north is not much better. And construction is never ending on I-94, the world's oldest freeway where pot-holes grow the size of elephants. At least the smaller east-west tributaries are relatively devoid of construction.

If this summer of road construction is what candidate Feiger vehemently calls inadequate,

I would hate to experience what he's got in mind.

Mike's musings

Mike Wilcox

Community spirit should last longer than Liberty Fest

Last year Canton's Liberty Fest attracted 60,000 people, almost as many people who live in the township.

The huge attendance is an indication of the township's community spirit.

No doubt the people and groups who make Liberty Fest have succeeded in turning Canton into a close community for one weekend. Free music, fireworks, games, and amusements can bring people together temporarily.

It's an opportunity for people who are not involved in township life a chance to see the players. Most of the service clubs and organizations will be there.

Certainly Canton, the quintessential fringe suburb, will celebrate itself.

But when the party is over and the residents return to their homes, the sense of community will dwindle. After all, who would expect Liberty Fest to inspire 365 days of community? It's only intended to provide community for one weekend.

Who wants community anyhow? Certainly not the people who planned Canton. Instead of planning for community -- which require neighborhoods not tracts; parks and squares, not "open space"; boulevards, not asphalt ribbons; some pedestrian shopping; more locally owned businesses; and a central business and government core -- Canton's planners tilted toward creating a hodgepodge of insulated subdivisions and hypertrophic strip malls connected by deteriorating congested roads.

While many people are content to live without a community, some are tabulating the costs of isolated living to children, who are blackballed from the car culture.

"Teens need more than scenery," a recent column by Froma Harrop in the Providence Journal-Bulletin presented the worse cause scenario for raising kids without a community.

She wrote:

"The 15-year-old who shot four people to death and wounded 25 others in Springfield, Ore., is only the latest teenage gunman to hail from a semi-rural setting. We should stop noting that these young people have become vicious killers despite being raised in the idyllic-looking countryside. Instead we should consider the possibility that exurban isolation has become a contributing factor to their sort of teenage mayhem."

After describing the woody subdivision of large homes that the alleged killer lived in, she continues: "Pine trees need water, good soil and light to thrive. But human beings need more. They require interaction with other people. Youngsters, especially, must socialize. But that becomes hard to do in exurbia where housing patterns cut people off from each other. A good number of children living in such isolated areas have become savages, and they are not noble savages...."

"So, it is not a coincidence that the great majority of schoolhouse shootings, which have ended 13 lives and wounded 40 others in only eight months, have taken place in lonely exurbia. Rhododendrons need little more than water and space to grow healthy. Teenagers need organized ties to other people. Ignored, they may do horrible things. Even a dog, left alone, goes crazy."

Perhaps she's being a bit simplistic. Savages have been with us longer than soccer moms. It's just that there were a lot less savages when people lived in real communities.

Once-in-a-Lifetime Investment Opportunity

Millionaire Percy Ross is known for his philanthropic work. He offers help and encouragement for those in need. He has earned a fortune and a wealth of knowledge during his lifetime and wants to share both. His motto: "He who gives while he lives... also knows where it goes."

Dear Mr. Ross: Hi! My name is Kim and I'm a 14 year old home-schooled entrepreneur. I own a greeting card company and would like to know if you are interested in purchasing cards from my company. If not, could you pass the catalog I've enclosed along to a friend who might be interested. Stock is also available at the current price of $1 per share. Dividends are expected to be paid 3 times a year. Please let me know is we can do business.

(Miss) K. Brunet ... Daily Herald, Arlington Heights, IL

Dear Kim: Over the years I've liquidated all of my stock holdings and vowed never to get back into the market. That is until your proposal crossed my desk. Your greeting cards are creative, yet reasonably priced and your catalog is extremely well done-informative and concise. Please issue me 100 shares of stock because $100 is on the way. And to insure I get a good return on my investment, allow me to share with my readers the name of you card company: 14 Karat Kards. Anyone interested in receiving a "katalog", please fax your request to (630)871-2411. So move over Hallmark-there's a new greeter in town.

Dear Percy Ross: I'm so stressed I can't sleep at night I'm terrified what will happen should I get in a car accident or be stopped by the police. I'm driving without car insurance and as luck would have it, I'm bound to pay some kind of consequences. My 6 month premium was due two months ago. I had the $690 saved and was about to send in my payment. My 32 year old son came to me at the same time and pleaded with me to load him $700 for dental work. He said that he would get reimbursed by his insurance, but needed to pay up front for two root canals. He was in such obvious paid I couldn't turn him down. It sounded like he'd be able to repay me within 30 days. Well, the 30 days came and went, as has another 30 days. I told him how much I needed the $700 and he basically shrugged his shoulders and said, "Tough." Was I wrong as a mother to not want to leave my son in pain? Percy, I probably made a foolish choice, and I'm willing to admit as much, but at age 61 I'm getting to old to pay the consequences.

Ms. L.P... Pennysaver, Skaneateles, NY

Dear Ms. P. Evidently you are a reasonable, law abiding citizen. Otherwise, your driving without car insurance wouldn't have had the impact it has had on you.

Fear no more because I'm sending $700. However, I encourage you not to let your son off the hook. He owes you that money and he should repay it. And should you be lucky enough to receive it, I suggest you apply it toward your next insurance premium. Remember, we're all capable of making poor choices. But to repeat those poor choices is outright stupidity. Best wishes.

Dear Percy: There are only a few decent people left in this world and you are not one of them! The least you could have done was acknowledge the letter I wrote with a response. The other agencies I wrote did that much! I should have known writing you was only a waste of time. You, sir, are a phony and your column is nothing but lies. You probably haven't helped anybody. If had the money I would expose you for the phony, hypocrite you are. Thanks for nothing!

Ms. L.W. ... The Dispatch, Moline, IL

Dear Ms. W: I'm a phony hypocrite because I didn't help you? Or, because I didn't respond to your letter? If it's the former, yes, I did not send you any financial assistance. If it's the latter, consider this your response.

Editor's note: Check your local radio station for Percy Ross' call of the day and visit his web sit at www.thanksamillion.com

Traffic tough pill to swallow

By KURT KUBAN

Whoever it was that came up with the phrase "rat race" sure did know what they were talking about.

As of late, you may have found yourself locked into the nightmare that is I-275. Yes, that main artery that gets many of us to and from work, as well as to other places of commitment, has gone under the knife, as construction workers have begun the process of repair. If you've been anywhere near the interstate during rush hour, you know exactly what I'm referring to.

In life, there are many miserable episodes to endure, but being packed into miles of stalled traffic like sardines in a can is possibly one of the worst. Deciding to take I-275 is like playing Russian roulette: will it be backed up or won't it? Lately, the answer almost always seems to be yes.

Truth is, despite the fact that we all hate this construction traffic as much as the bubonic plague, we had better get used to it. According to several sources, there is more road work taking place in the Metro Detroit area this summer than at any time in history. Of course, this means that Wayne County roads are going to be like a mine field (God forbid you have to go anywhere north of the county line into that exploding hell known as Oakland County).

Well, I too have spent the last month trying to endure these traffic jams on a daily basis, and accepting the nuisance as a simple symptom of growth and a better

Binge drinking students are wasting loans

To the editor:

College students have been into heavy drinking for many, many years. Why the surprise, and why the reluctance by college authorities to take control and correct the situation?

An instructor could start by letting students know the first day of class that anyone who is on drugs, including booze, or who appears to be, will not be permitted to attend class. Yes, been there, done that.

It ought to be very discouraging to taxpayers that the bingers are drinking up their loans. We're paying for all of the weekend parties. The money was to be used for tuition and books. And it's likely these miscreants will forget to pay the loan money to boot.

Lilly-white Wayne ought to hire a few minorities

To the editor:

Isn't our city's motto: People, Pride & Progress?

Isn't that what the emblems on city cars & trucks reflect?

Well, I would like for the city to answer this question, just what people, what pride and what progress are they talking about? Our city of Wayne, was once a nice small town with plenty of downtown shopping and family restaurants, etc.

However since those good old days of only a few decades ago, our fine city has undergone urban renewal!

What has "urban renewal" actually been but city ruin?

Nice old homes, and local businesses were torn down to put up a new Post Office and Metro-Mall, which as you can still see - has turned into a dismal failure.

If you call a new Post Office and an empty mall (progress) then something is drastically wrong with the picture.

So much for progress.

How about People, just what People are they talking about?

If you attend a city council meeting they all look the same to me. I don't see any of them that look like they can speak fluent Japanese, Korean, Chinese, Spanish or Swahili, or any other non-Caucasian languages.

It's highly unlikely that our city council can say that our fine city, has no non-caucasian residents.

Forget our Ku Klux Kop's, I'm not even going to ask how they seem to get away with ignoring federal law(s). However what's the city councils excuse for not reflecting the proper picture of our city's residents?

I know we have African-American churches within our city, and that's all well and good, as long as none run for city politics, right? It sure seems like the city council has done the same as other governing bodies, and that is that they have forgotten just who they are supposed to be working for.

They pass insane parking ordinances, without voter approval. Aren't they supposed to work for US, instead of against US?

I served in a Multi-Racial Military in Vietnam, and in the heat of battle we didn't stop to check a persons heritage, we were all working together for the same goal - to get back home alive! It's too bad your elected officials don't have the same mind set, (for the good of all).

You all have heard the saying, you can't tell a book by it's cover, right? Well I beg to differ on that, sometimes you can! From this residents viewpoint, our city's book appears to be a Lilly White! By today's standards, this is wrong!

Well, I still have my constitutional right to speak out on any issue that I disagree with, that is unless the pinkos on the city council pass an ordinance banning free speech - next!!!!

What at this point wouldn't surprise me at all ...

If you don't like the way things are going, remember you can still vote these scumbags out of office. Show up and vote!!! Now watch them pass an ordinance banning voting as well? Come out to the next city council meeting, I'll meet you there! Until then, have a nice day.

Powser only guilty of truth seeking

To the editor:

I feel compelled to send this letter because I am tired of the "Lets bash Shirley Powser" campaign that is going on. If the residents of this great community would remember, it was Councilman Dickerson who made the motion for the Task Force. So why then should the burden of reimbursing the city lay on her? Councilman Dickerson should be the one to payback the city. Shirley Powser tried to obtain information on several issues as a citizen but kept being put off. Now she is a council member, just trying to do her job. Why do people become afraid of the truth? What's to hide? I vote and supported Shirley Powser because I wanted someone to be my voice so that I would be heard. It seems apparent that not only Councilman Dickerson, but also council members McEachern, and Dobrowolski are trying to railroad Councilwoman Powser into doing something that would just make the three of them look good.

The Task Force, or I should say the majority already had their minds made up after the first meeting. This is an injustice. Not only to councilwoman Powser but to the citizens as well. The majority seemed like they did not want the truth, but a way to oust Shirley Powser and leave her to hang. Well, their mission was accomplished. Needless to say, that they left a wrong impression about councilwoman Powser for the citizens to believe. Shirley Powser is not afraid to stand up and to be heard to represent us, to be our voice. The people elected her to do a job, and as far as I'm concerned, she is doing a terrific job at that. My fellow citizens please remember this: the only thing councilwoman Powser is guilty of is seeking out the truth and since when has that been a crime?

I can accept the council has already made their decision. It's something we all have to live with. But what we don't have to live with is the ongoing battle between Councilman Dickerson and Councilwoman Powser. I don't know why Bob Dickerson cannot get over this thing. What's his problem? We may never know. I supported Shirley Powser then I support her now, and will continue to support her in the future. It's a welcomed relief knowing she's on our tax-dollars.

Lets put this whole task force thing tucked into the past, and embrace the future, as Councilwoman Powser did on June 2 by extending her hand to welcome fellow council-members to join her to move forward to tomorrow. Thank you Councilwoman Powser.

Mark Blackwell

Sin punished upon turning 50

To the editor:

There is a widely held religious belief that - after death - we begin receiving punishment for our sins. As a rapidly aging baby boomer I disagree. I am firmly convinced that many of us begin receiving at least some punishment for our sins shortly after our 50th birthday.

Traffic

economy. However, the other day was a particularly tough pill to swallow. After being stuck in bumper to bumper, stop and go traffic on a sweltering stretch of asphalt, another driver made a terribly egregious maneuver; cutting in front of me, just because he didn't want to wait like the rest of us. Now in reality, there wasn't really any chance of an accident between us. It's just that he showed no consideration for any of the other poor souls locked in the mess of rush hour. He was thinking only of himself. His little maneuver inspired the same kind of violent feelings within me that the character Jason must have felt during all those Friday the 13th blood baths. I definitely had a first-class case of road rage.

It was then that it dawned on me how accurate that statement about the rat race is. We're all fighting for that little bit of space that will get us somewhere that much quicker, and other drivers are only opposition to that goal.

The incident also reminded me of the "Ed Rowe Resolution," named after the Wayne resident who realized that the problem of road rage may be getting out of hand. As a result, Mr Rowe approached the Wayne city council and asked them to do something about this menace. The council put together a resolution and sent it off to the Secretary of State, in an attempt to give a little more scrutiny to the problem. With the current state of I-275, the resolution couldn't be more appropriate.

"People who are involved in a road rage are just like you and me, except our personalities change when we get behind the wheel," Rowe told the city council. "I guess we feel we get a false sense of security that no one can harm us and its our space that someone's intruding on."

Mr. Rowe is absolutely right. We all get a little angry when packed in traffic, especially in the summer heat. Somehow, as traffic backs up and our destinations take longer and longer to get to, we all get into that competition mode, never wanting to give an inch. The five foot radius around our cars becomes our territory. Don't tread on me!

Yes, the "rat race" is a perfect analogy. But, this is our world. We all know it, which is why we put up with things like construction traffic. All we can do, as we're deadlocked in miles of traffic, is turn on a soothing radio station or CD (gangster rap and heavy metal not recommended) and dream of some two-lane country highway with shady trees and a little wildlife.

We've got to start looking at each other as if we were on the same team, because let's face it, we are all in the same boat until this mess gets cleared up. Would you cut off, or flip off, one of your own teammates? All we have to do is adjust our attitudes a bit and look at things more positively.

And just think, we're going to have all summer to work on it. Cheese anybody?

Romulus baseball coach to resign

'Family must come before anything else you do in life'

By TOM MOORADIAN
MCN Staff Writer

Romulus' biggest loss of the 1998 baseball season may have occurred after the season.

Veteran Romulus coach Don Foley has announced he has resigned as varsity baseball coach to devote more time with his family.

Foley, 49, said that he regrets the move but that his family comes first.

"I love coaching and also the people I have associated with in this profession," said Foley, during a telephone interview Monday evening. "I have kids who also love sports, are very much involved in sports, and I want to be there during their trials and tribulations."

"However, during the past few years that has almost been impossible, so I have decided to resign."

Foley has been in coaching for the past 25 years, the last nine as the head varsity baseball coach at the high school. The science-math teacher finished the 1998 campaign with a disappointing 11-17 record.

However, the Eagles were in the thick of the Mega Conference, Gold Division title race right up to the end. They garnered a 10-2 record, and lost the title to Dearborn Fordson.

The Tractors swept both ends of a doubleheader in the final games of the regular season to capture the divisional crown.

Foley has had success with his past teams. During the 1996 campaign the Eagles posted a 15-11 record which earned for Foley the Michigan Community Newspapers' Coach of the Year accolades.

Romulus Athletic Director Jesse Meriweather has announced that the position is vacant, and he is seeking qualified candidates to fill the vacancy.

Foley said he is not closing the door on coaching altogether. He said after his kids are grown, he may come back.

He noted that his wife, Marilyn, and the children support him on his decision to leave coaching for a while.

He added that three of his children - Craig, who is in junior High and is involved in

Rules of the games change

The rules of the games - basketball, football, soccer and even the rules of varsity eligibility - have changed for the upcoming high school athletic season.

The Michigan High School Athletic Association announced changes in the transfer rule to allow immediate eligibility for more students, and several football measures related to the playoffs and end-of-game procedures for the 1998-99 season.

Perhaps the biggest change to the MHSAA's transfer rules comes in new authority being bestowed upon its Executive Committee to grant, on a case-by-case basis, immediate eligibility at the sub-varsity level for transferring ninth or tenth grade students who have not previously participated in any sport at the high school level and who do not qualify for one of the 15 exceptions to the transfer regulations.

The students may have transferred for reasons having nothing to do with athletics, discipline or family finances.

A second transfer regulation was also modified that would impact students transferring from home schools to MHSAA member schools.

In order for a home-schooled student to be immediately eligible at his or her new school as a result of attending the last grade available in that home school or home school ceasing to operate, the student must have begun attendance at the home school at least 270 calendar days earlier and has been in continuous enrollment.

The transfer is allowed with immediate eligibility one time only.

A first for Romulus

It was a big first for Romulus, and the Ezell Wooden-sponsored team which won the Team Wheatley Roundball Classic in the city of Inkster last week. The team, pictured above, includes Michael Christopher (top row, from left), Paul Brown, Johnston Watson, tournament-sponsor NFL Pro Tyrone Wheatley, coach Darrell Green, and players Demetrius White, Anson Long, Charles Searcy, Demetrius White and Bryant Murphy. "We are the final team from Romulus to win a Team Wheatley Classic title," says Green, "and this team, made up of 13-14 year olds, is the best team that I have ever coached. They played together and that's why we won."

At Canton Football, wrestling coaches named

By TOM MOORADIAN
MCN Staff Writer

Plymouth-Canton school officials did not have to look far or long to pick their next head football coach or head varsity coach.

They drafted Tim Baechler to serve as the next varsity football coach, and also picked former assistant wrestling coach John Demsick to take over the high school's wrestling program.

Baechler replaces Bob Khoenle, who announced in April that he would not be returning to the team after nine consecutive years as coach and 29 years in coaching.

The longtime Chiefs' coach said that he was retiring from the sport and wanted to give someone else the opportunity to take over the reins.

According to school officials, Baechler is employed within the Plymouth-Canton school district as an English teacher at Lowell Middle School. He previously coached at Dexter High School, where he was in charge of the varsity program from 1991 until 1996.

His credentials also include a coaching stint with Hudson High School where he earned recognition as the "Coach of the Year" in Class C.

Married, Baechler and his family make their home in the Plymouth-Canton area.

Baechler earned his degree from Eastern Michigan University. The new coach has met with prospective players last week to inform the incoming players of the coaching changes.

Canton has has a tough time breaking the .500 won-lost mark in recent years. The Chiefs compete in the Western Division of the Western Lakes Conference which has been dominated by perennial state title contender Farmington Hills Harrison.

In the meantime, Demsick, an outstanding athlete who wrestled in college at the University of Michigan, replaces coach to Ernie Krumm on the Chiefs' mats.

The new head wrestling coach has been an elementary physical education teacher in the school district since 1977.

Demsick was awarded his bachelor's as well as masters degrees from the University of Michigan where he was a member of the Wolverine wrestling squad for two years.

This past Spring, Demsick won the 1998 AAU National Wrestling title in his weight class and age. He and his family make their home in the school district

Brighton, Henson oust Glenn in quarterfinals

By TOM MOORADIAN
MCN Staff Writer

Westland John Glenn learned the hard way why Brighton and Drew Henson are considered among the best that Michigan high school baseball had to offer this season.

Henson, a 6-5 senior who was drafted by the New York Yankees and has his heart set playing football for coach Lloyd Carr at the University of Michigan this fall, mowed down 13 Glenn batters and chalked up an 8-0 victory over coach Todd Duffield and the Rockets in the Division I quarterfinals last week.

The loss ended Glenn's playoff dream season and left the Westlanders with an overall 17-16 record.

Brighton advanced to the state semifinals where they met and lost to the eventual state champs, Midland, 3-1. Henson took the loss, but Henson returned to the mound with less than 48-hours of rest.

"If you're going to be beaten, then let it be to a team like Brighton and a pitcher like Henson. They have a darn good team" said Duffield after the season-ending setback.

Duffield went with his hottest pitcher in the playoffs, Dale Hayes, who pitched an outstanding game against a team that had racked up an incredible 33-2 record.

Hayes worked 5 1/3 innings

All-Area baseball next

The last hurrahs have been heard around the high school ball diamonds, and the last of the local teams have handed in their uniforms.

But this rained-drenched baseball season isn't over yet, not until the Michigan Community Newspapers' Sports Staff writers end their songs of spring.

And, hopefully, next week, the MCN staff, with their usual help from the area high school coaches, will have that lineup ready for the readers.

The team will consist of the best of the best, drafted from the lineups of our local teams: players who helped Westland John Glenn reach the state quarterfinals; Wayne Memorial, Romulus, Belleville, Plymouth-Salem, Plymouth-Canton, Robichaud and Inkster.

The selected cadre will join an elite club that has literally hundreds of alumni which graduated during the past three decades and a half since the teams have been selected by our staff.

Some players, like Pat Sheridan, went on to play professionally.

Then, there's the task of selecting the MCN's Coach of the Year?

Who deserves the honor?

Pick up next week's edition for the answer.

Ex-Inkster hoop star continues to shine

As a prep hoopster at Inkster High in the early 1990s, Mariah Tatum pumped in 50 points in a game to eclipse the single game record at the high school.

Tatum hasn't stopped shining on the hardwood since.

Way down on the banks of the Mississippi, high on "the Buffs" of Southern University, Coach Herman Hartman and his Lady Jaguars' Basketball team have probably one of the most deadliest yet quietest threats in the Southwestern Athletic Conference.

See STAR, page B-2

Laid-back and relaxed during the off-season, but coaches say that when former Inkster High hoop star Mariah Tatum (pictured above) is called into play on the hardwood, she turns into an aggressive stalker of the roundball, and few have been able to stop her from making more than her share of points. She set all-kinds of scoring records at Inkster High, and continues to do so at Southern University, a team that is expected to compete for the SAC conference title when the shooting begins this fall.

Westland finished 4th at NIT softball tournament

Westland rallied for five runs in the bottom of the sixth and added one more in the seventh, but came up short in Ohio against a slugging Hague/Wessel, 17-11, and finished fourth at the Springfield Softball Invitational.

"We saw some good teams here," said Westland coach Larry Quartuccio. "As a team we hit the ball well (.743), but we had to settle for a fourth-place at this tournament."

The Westlanders managed to place two of their players on the all-tournament team. John Simpson, a centerfielder and middle infielder, who drilled the ball around the park at an .800 clip, and teammate Greg Tome, also an infielder, who wound up with a .650 batting average and accounted for 12 runs-batted in, were named to the elite club.

Down 5-2 going into the top of the fourth, Hague erupted for five runs to take a 7-5 lead over Westland's Jimmies/Easton, then put the local club away with a six-run spurt in the fifth.

Jimmies/Easton wasted an outstanding batting effort by Mark Matchulat, who stroked a pair of singles and tripled, while Belleville's Scott Janack collected a couple of doubles and had three RBIs.

Behind winning pitcher Raffi Kostegian, Jimmies/Easton put away Watanabe, 12-1. Watanabe is currently ranked fifth in the nation in the USSSA "AA" softball rankings. The Cincinnati, Ohio squad got only three hits off of Kostegian, a former Redford Thurston all-around athlete.

Janack continued his hot hitting streak as he laced three singles, as did first baseman Tome, who also drove in three runs. Simpson chipped in with a perfect four-for-four.

Jimmies/Easton came up with five big runs in the bottom of the seventh to edge Pace, 21-20. The victory avenged last year's Westland's loss to their World Series nemesis. Pace stunned Jimmies a year ago in Dallas when the Rochester (New York) team knocked the local club out of contention for the title.

Winning pitcher Scott Nastally helped his own cause with a perfect four-for-four at the plate. But it was teammate Tom Lengyel, whose homer and pair of singles that accounted for five RBIs who turned the tide. Matchulat finished

The MHSAA also considered a regulation which would have addressed transfers by student-athletes seeking to escape ineligibility by their former schools for academic deficiencies or athletic code violations.

The MHSAA staff is in the process of developing a model policy for local school districts' consideration and adoption.

The MHSAA council on football matters went on record as favoring the expansion to the annual Football Play-offs.

The vote came in response to a recent survey of member school superintendents and principals in which 72 percent of 520 responses individual a desire to expand the 128 team football playoff field.

In that survey, only 40 percent of the superintendents and principals surveyed favored starting the regular season a week earlier; and only 50.5 percent favored using the ninth week of the season as a playoff week.

The most recent playoff expansion in 1990 was accomplished without changing the regular-season calendar, but by doubling the number of classifications.

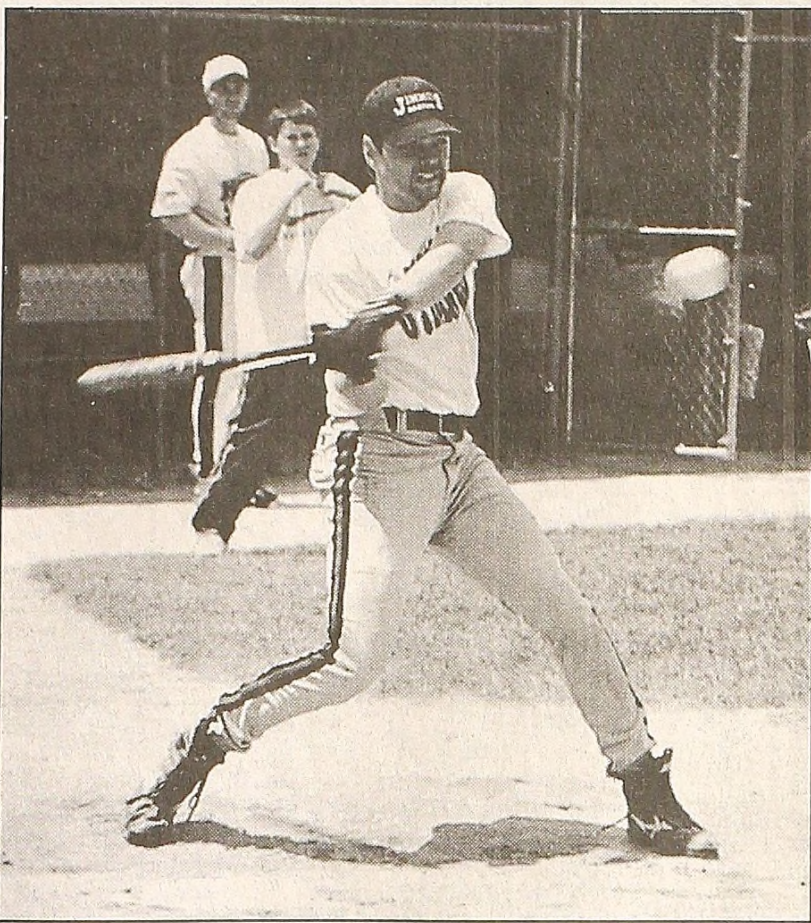

Also, the Spring sports season will have its first practice date delayed by one week, beginning in 1999.

basketball and soccer; Jenifer, who runs track and plays basketball; and Jamie, a senior who is on the varsity softball and basketball teams - welcome their father's decision.

"My oldest, Deana, is married to teaching golf pro at Cherry Creek Golf Course," Foley offered. "I also would like to spend more time on the golf links. Guess I will have that opportunity now."

Westland's Randy Windham (above) makes solid contact with the ball for one of his three hits in the NIT tournament. Westland, sponsored by Jimmies/Easton, is a perennial title contender in the Anderson Classic, staged in the city of Wayne during the month of July. Tournament officials say they are still looking for a few good teams to compete the lineup. Tournament dates are July 17-18-19, and contact Jeff Rutter at the Wayne Parks and Recreation Department if you feel you have a team that can make the grade. That number is 721-7400.

Wazney, Irwin set early women's golf league pace

Members of the Women's Suburban Golf Association swung into action last week at Green Oaks and Dearborn's Diane Wazney led the pack in the first flight, while Westlander Penny Irwin set the pace in the second.

Wazney carded a 90 to post the low gross in her flight. She edged Northville's Carolyn Benninger by one stroke, while June Wright toured the course with a 75 to finish with the low net.

Two strokes behind Wright was Dolly Vettese, who carded a 77.

In the meantime, Farmington Hills' Dorothy Cody and Livonia's Dorothy Cortes finished with identical 108 scores in the second flight for runnerup honors. Dearborn Heights' Peggy Osip had a sizzling 70 for the afternoon to earn Low Net accolades.

There was a two-way tie for runnerup in the Low Net race as Mary Ann Kraft and Pat Wilson both carded 79s.

Star

At six-feet, Tatum is poised to appear as the dominating force in the SAC. The senior center from the city of Inkster, who happens to be ubiquitous Jessie Shelby's granddaughter, has been among the team and the conference's leaders in scoring and rebounding since her freshman year when she started 17 of 26 games.

An all-around athlete, Tatum lettered in basketball, volleyball and track & field as a prep star at Inkster High. While in high school, she received All-District, All-Metro, and All-

Area honors and also All-State recognition.

"She is among the finest talents this school has ever produced," noted George Thompson Jr., longtime Inkster High coach and athletic director. "We are very proud of her and her postgraduate achievements."

And so are the Jaguars. "Her process of development has just been awesome," Hartman says. "She is exactly what we expected and needed, a team player."

Tatum continues to set all kinds of records.

As a sophomore at SU, Tatum established a new team best for field goal shooting when she hit .610 percent of her shots from the field. The old mark was .535. Also, as a freshman she led the team in rebounds with a 7.0 per contest.

A quiet and somewhat reserve person off the hardwood, Tatum becomes totally different at game time. Hartman describes his senior as "tenacious, very intense."

Last season she led the 15-12 Lady Jags in scoring (12.7 ppg.) and rebounding (7.7 rpg) and also collected seven double-doubles.

What will she accomplish during the 1998-99 campaign? Time will tell.

The season, however, will prove to be a year of high expectations for Tatum, her coaches, and teammates as the Lady Jags look to contend for the Southwestern Athletic Conference title.

"We expect her to be the go to person this year," Hartman stressed.

ished with a single, double and triple for his four at-bats and second baseman John Recker also had three singles.

Randy Windham's five RBIs, thanks to a single and triple, also played a big role in the victory.

and gave up a first-inning run on a walk to Brighton's leadoff batter and Frank Garcia's double. As Henson gathered goose eggs, his teammates came back in the bottom of the third for six earned runs that clinched the quarterfinal.

The 18-year-old Henson gave up a total of two hits, struck out 13 and walked only one. Those two hits were singles - one in the second frame by Nick Hudson and a single by Chet Rees in the fourth.

In his 5 1/3 innings on the mound, Dales was tagged for four hits, fanned and equal number, but he also issued seven walks which inevitably led to his demise.

Duffield said that he was not only elated at the way his team played in the stretch, but also surprised.

"We were definitely a better team than our record indicated," said Duffield, who completed his third year as Glenn's head coach. "We managed to overcome our mental mistakes and lack of intensity, characteristic of this team during the early phase of the season, and managed to come back and play to our potential in the playoffs."

By the way, Tim Reeves, who was injured in the regional championship game, didn't make it into the lineup against Brighton. His torn ligament kept him on the sidelines.

With a nucleus of veterans returned to the Rocket lineup next year, Glenn is poised to pick up next year where it left off this year.

"This was a good experience for this team. I am really looking forward to '99 because I feel we have the potential of becoming an outstanding team."

A first for Romulus

Alec Hance

Hance to attend Boys State Week

By AL POST
MCN Staff Writer

Alec Lorne Hance, a junior at Romulus High School, has been selected to attend the 60th Annual American Legion Boys State Program at Michigan State University in East Lansing from June 21 to June 27.

Hance, the son of John Hance Sr. of Forestdale, will be returning as a senior this fall to share his Boys State experiences with his classmates.

Hance, one of 750 boys to be at the weeklong camp, is being sponsored by the Romulus Kiwanis Club.

After graduation, Hance plans to enter Western Michigan University, where he will major in aviation.

The Boys State Program duplicates the very process by which the governments in Michigan and Washington D.C. operate. Each young man attending Boys State will learn from first hand experience how to work within a political party, question and work for the common good.

In addition to the political experience, Romulus High Counselor John Domas said Hance also will learn the priceless lesson of team participation while maintaining his own individuality.

Domas thanked the following persons who aided Hance attend Boys State: Mae Jackson, William Knight, school counselors; David Ferdon, Romulus Kiwanis Club; Kathy Hurst, Student Government advisor; Kathy Abdo, class advisor; Mark Anderson, Fanny Williams, Karl Wukie, Serena Frasier, Lance Knudson and Linda Poirier, teachers; Principal Dan Hurst; Melvin Kimbrough and Douglas Hoffman, assistant principals; and Joyce Evans, guidance office secretary.

Odds and ends

Logo wins

Faizon Makhiawala, a seventh grader at East Middle School, won the 1998 Liberty Fest Logo Contest. He completed an extra credit assignment for art instructor Jane Beaudoin which was entered in the contest. Faizon's design will be used for this year's T-shirts for the Liberty Fest held at Heritage Park in Canton this summer. He won a $100 savings bond, a Liberty Fest Perks packet and a family invitation to the VIP Fireworks Show at Pheasant Run.

Awards presented

Teddy Cowger and Amanda Little received the Bob Jones Citizenship award at West Middle School's evening eighth-grade awards presentation on May 28.

Keith Lukasik was honored with the Bob Smith Academic award for maintaining the highest grades all three years at West.

Kathryn D. Avanzo was the first recipient of the Judith M. Stone Community Service award presented by retiring principal Judy Stone. Kathryn also was awarded a $100 savings bond for her best efforts in the community.

Students' names will appear on plaques in the main hall at West joining past student recipients.

Choose me

The Board of Education recently passed a resolution station that the Plymouth-Canton Community Schools, Schools of Choice Program for 1998-99 will apply to the Alternative Education program through Adult Education only. Non-residents, within Wayne County, may apply for admission to this program by contacting Starkweather Education Center at 416-4901 before July 15, 1998. The Alternative Education Program provides academic and vocational

High School student awarded scholarship

The MEEMIC Foundation for the Future of Education is proud to announce that Michael D. Voutsinas of Livonia, the son of Konstantinos and Diana Voutsinas, has been awarded a $1,000 scholarship. The Foundation recognizes top high school students in Michigan whose parents are in the field of education. Diana Voutsinas is a teacher at Fordson High School in Dearborn.

Michael was the varsity co-captain and a WLAA scholar athlete for basketball at Livonia Stevenson High School. He was also active in the student council, the school improvement committee and the Mid-American Model U.N. Michael earned his Eagle Scout honors from the Boy Scout Troop 782. He was a member of the National Honor Society and the Physics and Spanish clubs. He was also active in many church and youth group activities throughout high school. Michael will be attending the University of Michigan to study international business.

The MEEMIC Foundations for the Future of Education was founded in March of 1992 by the Michigan Education Employees Mutual Insurance Company (MEEMIC). The mission of the Foundation is to support Michigan's education community and their families in the furtherance of their education. Michael was one of sixteen recipients in Michigan. There were nearly 900 applicants statewide this year.

‘Dead Serious’ musical to open

By AL POST
MCN Staff Writer

“DEAD SERIOUS...about life,” a musical geared for teens, will invade Romulus High School this weekend in an effort to dispense hope on issues such as abortion, substance abuse, sex, religion, date rape and suicide.

The musical begins with a scene where a mother and father are taking off for a weekend, leaving their home in charge of three youthful members of the family.

Promoters said the musical and drama will make viewers laugh, cry, hurt, fear and feel strong emotions.

The final message of the evenings is that suicide creates more problems than it cures.

The shows are offered at 6 p.m. Saturday and 4 p.m. Sunday.

Tickets at the door will cost $6.50.

The youthful cast includes 37 performers and eight technicians representing 21 different school districts and 36 different churches.

The group -- known as Mish-pachah Inc. (a Jewish word for family) -- originates in Mason, Ohio.

The Romulus Pastors’ Association assisted in having the twin performances offered in Romulus this weekend.

A coffee hour is slated for this Sunday after the 11 a.m. service to honor the Rev. Brad Lewis and his wife, Debbie, on their final day at the Community United Methodist Church of Romulus.

Special activities will occur during the regular service, as well as at the coffee hour.

Bill Kren

The Lewis family will soon be leaving to head a church in the Roscommon area.

The Rev. Bill Kren, formerly of the Cherry Hill Evangelical Church of Inkster, will become the new pastor in Romulus, succeeding Lewis.

Kren served in Inkster in 1991-92 and then left for Indiana, where he was the business manager for the East Central Conference of the Evangelical Church.

After finishing that role he returned to Michigan, where he served in the car sales business in Livonia.

The Community United Methodist Church will be the fourth church he will be serving since 1982.

Kren already is getting the feeling he is “coming home” since he lived in nearby Taylor for 10 years previously.

His early goals for Romulus are to serve the church’s spiritual needs, get involved in local activities and help positive actions grow in the city.

Last week Kren was able to attend the Thursday session of the United Methodist annual conference and said he had a chance to meet again with the Rev. J.D. Landis, former Community United Methodist Church pastor now serving in Detroit.

Kren said his wife, Elizabeth, will become involved in the church activities and his daughter, Maria, will be getting married this fall.

A car wash is slated for 9 a.m. Saturday at the Burcroff Shop on Wayne road in Romulus, near Goddard road.

The car wash is sponsored by the Community United Methodist Church’s Men’s Club and is being held to raise funds for youth activities within the church.

The car wash will continue until 4 p.m. and donations from car owners will be accepted for that service.

The annual Woman’s Day Celebration at Smith Chapel AME Chapel Church of Inkster will be held at 10:45 a.m. on June 28.

The speaker will be Mrs. Valerie Jarrett, the first lady of Smith Chapel AME Church. The theme this year will be “Christian Women Growing in Grace.” The scripture is taken from Psalm 38:8 “The Lord will perfect that which concerneth me.”

Also three young women will be honored whose growth in grace has made a difference at Smith Chapel.

The church is located at 3505 Walnut St. Church leaders urge women readers to “come and enjoy with us a dynamic speaker and wonderful singing.”

David Ring -- a nationally known evangelist -- constantly reminds his listeners “I’ve got cerebral palsy -- what’s your problem?”

Ring will be visiting Wayne County on June 22 and will offer his message of overcoming personal handicaps at a 7 p.m. service at the American Hungarian Reformed Church, 9901 Allen Road in Allen Park.

Tickets costing $5 must be purchased prior to Ring’s appearance as none will be sold at the door of the suburban church located between Wick and Goddard roads.

For tickets either visit the church or call 313-382-1001.

The service will last about an hour followed by a social hour in the church.

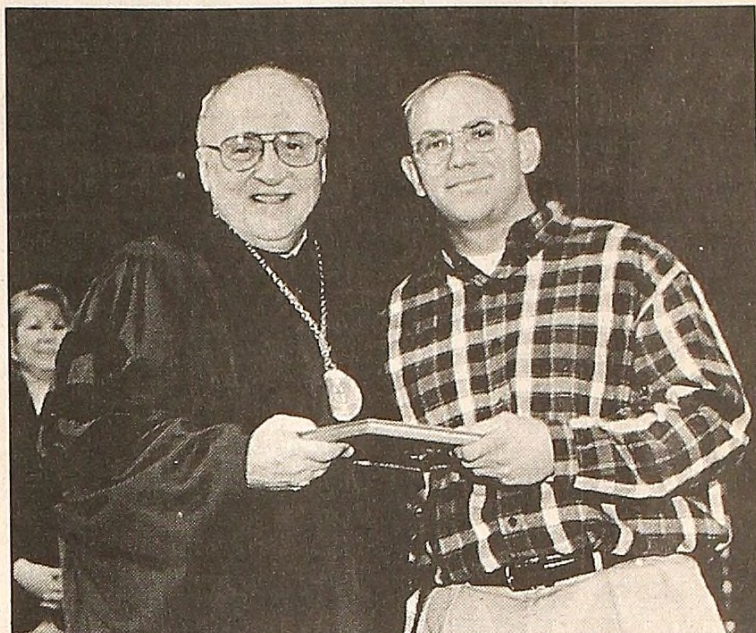

Ring, who gained national fame by appearing on the “The Old Time Gospel Hour” with Jerry Falwell is on one of his annual nationwide pilgrimages. He will be speaking to over 100,000 persons again this year at various churches, schools and corporate events.

An adult Bible study entitled “Life with God” will begin at 7 p.m. June 23 at the Christ Our Savior Lutheran Church, 46001 Warren road in Canton.

The 12 session class will help provide the student with a closer relationship with God and offer a more meaningful life through Jesus, Pastor Robert Bayer said.

Participation in the study places the participant with no obligation to join the church, Bayer said. There is no fee to attend. Participants need only call the church at 734-414-7422 to register.

The church started in Livonia in 1977 and later expanded to a site in Canton.

Memorial award

David W. Hindman of Canton is presented with the Gene Wesley Memorial Award for his top efforts in his pre- internship studies at Fuller Theological Seminary in Pasadena, Cal. Presenting the award is Seminary President Richard J. Mouw. Hindman plans to complete his Ph.D. work in clinical psychology in 2002. He is the son of Dennis and Susan Hindman of Canton. ## Friday new deadline in anti-casino drive

By AL POST
MCN Staff Writer

Surprisingly the Coalition to Repeal Proposal E’s efforts have been resurrected through tomorrow night in an effort to place the Detroit Casino question on the Michigan ballot this fall.

The coalition efforts are being conducted in an effort to give Michigan residents a second chance to decide if three casinos should open in the Detroit area.

Allen Rice, former pastor of the First United Methodist Church of Belleville and now treasurer of the coalition effort, said signatures can be added through Friday at the Metropolitan U.M. Church in Detroit.

Phone calls can be made to the church at 313-375-7407 for more information, Rice said.

“We now have enough signatures to put the issue on the ballot, but we would like a cushion of about another 30,000-40,000 signatures,” Rice said. The list of names of registered Michigan voters must be in the Secretary of State Bureau of Elections in Lansing by 5 p.m. Friday.

Rice on Tuesday said newspaper ads and radio spots will be appearing this week in an effort to encourage voters to sign the petitions.

Coalition members are opposing the opening of casinos in Detroit because they feel the casinos would add to area family woes -- including spousal and family abuse -- as well as increasing family and business bankruptcies.

The coalition feels that the casinos also would add to crime and possible instances of police and political corruption.

One anti-casino advocate Pete Peters, 58, a retired manufacturer’s representative, declared “we can’t outspend gambling casino operators, but the good citizens of Michigan can outwork them with motivated volunteers and we can outsmart them.”

Peters added “it is not too late to collect 400,000 petition signatures to stop casino gambling in Detroit before it starts.”

Signing a petition does not end casino dreams in Detroit, but if enough signatures are collected (247,127), statewide voters will be given an extra few months to decide if they definitely want the casinos to open in the most highly populated area of the state, coalition activists state.

“To make sure we safely surpass the minimum number of valid petition signatures, we are sending out an army of volunteers into the grassroots area to collect more signatures on clip boards,” Peters said.

In addition, Peters said, a total of $175,000 is being invested in full page newspaper ads seeking more casino question signatures.

The annual Men’s Day of the Womack Temple Christian Methodist Episcopal Church of Inkster will be held at 11 a.m. June 28 when the Rev. Vincent Berry of the Williams Chapel Baptist Church of Detroit will speak.

Later at 4 p.m. another guest speaker, the Rev. Lee Jackson, pastor of the New World Community Church of Detroit, will speak.

The theme of the day will be from Philippians 3:13 “Christian men know Christ is their strength.”

$1,000 puts railroad worker back on track

By AL POST
MCN Staff Writer

Minnie Ward, a long time resident of Inkster, won the last $1,000 prize in an eight-week contest offered by the Michigan Community Newspapers, MCN Publisher Mike Wilcox announced.

Ward said a church member called to tell her of her good luck - that of having her phone number listed in an edition of the MCN last week. When her copy of the Inkster Ledger Star arrived, she checked and loudly declared "yes...that's my number."

Ward then immediately called the MCN office in Wayne and later was declared the weekly winner.

Ward has lived in Inkster since 1946 and has worked various railroad related jobs, retiring after 38 years of service.

She said the $1,000 award elated her as she felt "now I've got some extra money."

But she later admitted much of the new found wealth will be used to purchase a car for her grand nephew - Darryl Landrum II, who just graduated from Inkster High School.

Darryl played sports and was a musician in the school band, Ward said. He plans to enter Schoolcraft College of Livonia this fall and thus the car will come in extremely handy, she said.

Local girl to tour Europe with premier arts camp

By DON RICHTER
MCN Special Writer

Belleville High School senior-to-be, Michelle Dare, will be one of 393 "musical ambassadors" heading to Europe this summer to participate in the Blue Lake Fine Arts Camp's International Exchange Program.

It is the largest number of musicians, singers and dancers to participate in the program since its inception in 1969. The performers will be split up into six groups and will perform concerts in eight European countries(Austria, Belgium, Denmark, France, Germany, Hungary, Italy and the Netherlands) during June and July.

One of the groups, will be an Adult Community Band, which will be made up of Blue Lake alumni and parents of former students. This will be the first time that they will participate in the program. The other five groups are made up of talented junior and senior high school students from Michigan and 15 other states.

In return, Blue Lake and more than four dozen Michigan communities will host 13 Asian and European groups that will tour Michigan this summer as part of the International Exchange Program.

Like their foreign cohorts, the Blue Lake groups will stay in local homes in each community that they visit while in Europe.

The six Blue Lake groups include an 84 piece symphony orchestra, a 95 member concert band, a 100 voice choral ensemble, a 46 member ballet ensemble, a 20 piece jazz band and the 47 piece Community Band.

Dare is participating in the choral ensemble.

Founded in 1966, Blue Lake has grown from a small, regional music camp, to one of America's largest summer arts schools. Nearly 4,000 junior and senior high school students attended Blue Lake last summer.

In addition to music and dance, Blue Lake offers programs in art and theater. It is located on a 1,200 acre campus 15 miles north of Muskegon in the Manistee National Forest.

Since 1970, nearly 25,000 American, European and Asian musicians, singers and dancers have participated in the International Exchange Program.

For more information on

Michelle Dare

this camp, contact Laura Jorgensen at (616)894-1966.

Fundraisers to benefit DARE

The Van Buren Township and the City of Belleville Drug Task Force, along with Walt Michal's R.V. Center are planning to hold five fund-raising events for D.A.R.E.(Drug Abuse Resistance Education).

Through June 19, 20 and 21, the location for these events will be at Walt Michal's R.V. Center at 44700, I-94 N. Service Drive in Belleville.

During these special events, the groups hope to raise approximately $5000, which Walt Michal's will match. All proceeds will go to the D.A.R.E. program.

The April fund-raising event held at Walt Michal's, raised $1000 to which Walt Michal's matched, bringing the total to $2000.

Some of the special events are: Friday, June 19, from 4p.m. to 6p.m., WYCD Young Country DJ Linda Lee will be broadcasting a live call-in show from Walt Michal's and you'll have the chance to take a look at the Young Country stock car on display. Also, members of the 1998 Detroit Tigers will be on hand to sign autographs. Finally, from 7p.m. to 10p.m a live oldies and blues band will be playing.

On Saturday, June 20, But-terfly the Clown will be appearing from 11a.m. to 3p.m. W4 Country Prize Patrol will set up shop from noon until 1p.m. There will be pony rides for the kid from noon to 3p.m. Live oldies and blues music played from 3p.m. to 6p.m. There will be a moon walk out for kids to play on from 9a.m. to 4p.m. A charity dunk tank for D.A.R.E. will be held all day and a live remote by WKOL 107.1 FM will broadcast from noon to 2p.m.

On Sunday, June 21, there will be a pancake breakfast from 8a.m. to 11a.m. with donations going to D.A.R.E.
